

I fail to see how reducing the coverage of the NJ Do Not Call list serves any legitimate governmental purpose. NJ's law does not violate any public policy, but your policy only serves to weaken state's rights - not a very Republican attitude.